

I just want to say how nice it has been not being plagued by telemarketers. I believe wisconsin's do not call registry should remain in its current form. I have even discontinued my caller I.D. service because the frequency with which I recieve telemarketing calls has been reduced so drastically, this reduces stress in my life. So PLEASE leave Wisconsin's Do Not Call List alone and let companies find other less annoying ways of marketing. Thank you.